DenTon Group acquires stake in Da Vinci Capital

Moscow, February 6, 2013 — DaVinci Capital, a leading private equity firm focused on Russia and the CIS, announced today that DenTon Group has completed an acquisition of a significant stake in the company. DenTon, a group of leading international investors and managers, is led by Tony Maher and Dennis Fulling, two global investors and entrepreneurs with extensive senior executive experience across various industries and geographies with a strong focus on emerging markets including Russia and the CIS.

In addition to the Da Vinci equity stake acquisition, DenTon also committed capital to Da Vinci's second Private Equity fund, Da Vinci Capital Fund II. The strategy of Fund II will be focused on financial infrastructure and mass consumer-driven finance and IT sectors in Russia and the Eurasian region. Fund II is currently being launched and closed its initial investment in B2B-Center, the leading Russian on-line procurement platform, during Q3 2012.
